A BILL

To clarify which Federal agencies regulate digital assets, to require those agencies to notify the public of any Federal licences, certifications, or registrations required to create or trade in such assets, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Crypto-Currency Act
5 of 2020”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7 In this Act:

1           (1) CRYPTO-COMMODITY.—The term “crypto-
2 commodity” means economic goods or services
3 that—

4           (A) have full or substantial fungibility;

5           (B) the markets treat with no regard as to 6 who produced the goods or services; and

7           (C) rest on a blockchain or decentralized
8 cryptographic ledger.

9           (2) CRYPTO-CURRENCY.—The term “crypto-
10 currency” means representations of United States
11 currency or synthetic derivatives resting on a 12 blockchain or decentralized cryptographic ledger, in-13 cluding—

14           (A) such representations or synthetic de-
15 rivatives that are reserve-backed digital assets
16 that are fully collateralized in a correspondent
17 banking account, such as stablecoins; and

18           (B) synthetic derivatives that are—

19           (i) determined by decentralized oracles
20 or smart contracts; and

21           (ii) collateralized by crypto-commod-
22 ities, other crypto-currencies, or crypto-se-
23 curities.

24           (3) CRYPTO-SECURITY.—

1 (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “crypto-secu-
2 rity” means all debt, equity, and derivative in-
3 struments that rest on a blockchain or decen-
4 tralized cryptographic ledger.

5 (B) EXCEPTION.—The term “crypto-secu-
6 rity” does not include a synthetic derivative
7 that—

8 (i) is operated as, and is registered
9 with the Department of the Treasury as, a 10 money services business (as defined under 11 section 1010.100 of title 31, Code of Fed-12 eral Regulations); and

13 (ii) is operated in compliance with all 14 applicable requirements of subchapter II of 15 chapter 53 of title 31, United States Code
16 (commonly referred to as the “Bank Se-17 crecy Act”) and all other Federal anti-18 money laundering, anti-terrorism, and 19 screening requirements of the Office of 20 Foreign Assets Control and the Financial 21 Crimes Enforcement Network.

22 (4) DECENTRALIZED ORACLE.—The term “de-23 centralized oracle” means a service that sends and 24 verifies real world data from external sources outside 25 of a blockchain and submits such information to

1 smart contracts that rest on the blockchain, thus 2 triggering the execution of predefined functions of 3 the smart contract.

4 (5) DIGITAL ASSET.—The term “digital asset”
5 means a crypto-commodity, crypto-currency, or 6 crypto-security.

7 (6) FEDERAL DIGITAL ASSET REGULATOR.—
8 The term “Federal crypto regulator” means—

9 (A) the Commodity Futures Trading Com-
10 mission, with respect to crypto-commodities;

11 (B) the Secretary of the Treasury, acting
12 through the Financial Crimes Enforcement
13 Network, with respect to crypto-currencies; and

14 (C) the Securities and Exchange Commis-
15 sion, with respect to crypto-securities.

16 (7) RESERVE-BACKED STABLECOIN.—The term
17 “reserve-backed stablecoin” means a digital asset
18 that—

19 (A) is a representation of currency issued
20 by the United States or a foreign government;

21 (B) rests on a blockchain or decentralized
22 cryptographic ledger; and

23 (C) is fully backed by such currency on a
24 one-to-one basis and fully collateralized in a
25 correspondent banking account.

1           (8) SYNTHETIC STABLECOIN.—The term “syn-
2           thetic stablecoin” means a digital asset, other than 3           a reserve-backed stablecoin, that—

4                   (A) is stabilized against the value of a cur-
5                   rency or other asset; and

6                   (B) rests on a blockchain or decentralized
7                   cryptographic ledger.

8   SEC. 3. ESTABLISHING AREAS OF REGULATORY OVER-
9                   SIGHT FOR DIGITAL ASSETS.

10          (a) CRYPTO-COMMODITIES.—The Commodity Fu-
11          tures Trading Commission shall be the sole Government
12          agency with the authority to regulate crypto-commodities.

13          (b) CRYPTO-CURRENCIES.—The Secretary of the 14          Treasury, acting through the Financial Crimes Enforce-
15          ment Network, shall be the sole Government agency with 16          the authority to regulate crypto-currencies (other than 17          synthetic stablecoins).

18          (c) CRYPTO-SECURITIES.—The Securities and Ex-
19          change Commission shall be the sole Government agency
20          with the authority to regulate crypto-securities and syn-
21          thetic stablecoins.

1 SEC. 4. AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC
2 ON REQUIREMENTS TO CREATE OR TRADE IN 3 DIGITAL ASSETS.

4 Each Federal digital asset regulator shall, with re-
5 spect to digital assets regulated by the Federal digital 6 asset regulator, make available to the public (and keep 7 current) a list of all Federal licenses, certifications, or reg-
8 istrations required to create or trade in digital assets.

9 SEC. 5. FINCEN RULES FOR CRYPTO-CURRENCIES.

10 Notwithstanding section 3(c), the Secretary of the 11 Treasury, acting through the Financial Crimes Enforce-
12 ment Network, shall issue rules to require each crypto-
13 currency (including synthetic stablecoins) to allow for the 14 tracing of transactions in the crypto-currency and persons 15 engaging in such transactions in a manner similar to that 16 required of financial institutions with respect to currency
17 transactions under subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 31, 18 United States Code.
